LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

I would like to thank you for sending me your Advance Magazine. I especially enjoy the success stories from the Advance Students. Many of them reach me 'just where I live' and have given me enough inspiration to put my date for coming to the Advanced Org. much sooner. This is a success story too, just from reading your magazine!

All the best,
J. S., Wellington, N.Z.

Dear Editor,

Could you find some space in your Advance Magazine to give us some info. and pictures if possible of the Advanced Org. at Edinburgh. It makes it more real as a terminal and we feel we will make it there much sooner by having a better reality on the place. Also, some more pictures of Clears and OTs would be appreciated.

ARC,
S. S., Seattle

Dear Editor,

As an ex-patriot Scot, I'm really pleased that Edinburgh was picked as the location for the Advanced Org. It will be interesting to see the effect of all that flow of Theta in the old city.

H. M., New York

Dear Sir,

I read with pleasure your Advance Magazine. The articles were very interesting and exciting but the thing I liked most was the way the information about courses and costs was clearly laid out.

Having decided to take my next step at once, through reading the magazine, it was splendid to have all necessary information as to how to do it, so easily available.

C.M.B.

Dear Editor,

I was really very pleased to see the new edition of Advance Magazine as it gave me so much insight into what is happening at the AO. The copy was a beautiful presentation and a magazine I will certainly collect. I found the information very interesting and absorbed every part of it.

I am so looking forward to the next edition with the valuable information coming direct from the Advanced Org. It was really marvellous; thank you for supplying us with a wonderful magazine.
S. M.

HEAVEN AND HELL

The extent of a person's hell could range from the old-time river of Styx to the modern steel superstructure of a gleaming skyscraper. The hell after all, is in one's own mind. It is the area one feels the least able to confront. The irate boss at work creates in his typist's mind a new kind of hell. The Spanish Inquisitors created theirs.

Artists throughout the ages have sought to inflame people's desires for a heaven as preached by their religious leaders. The Buddhist's Nirvana is completely out of line with the suburban Methodist Minister's as a brief scan of Indian and Wesleyan period art will indicate.

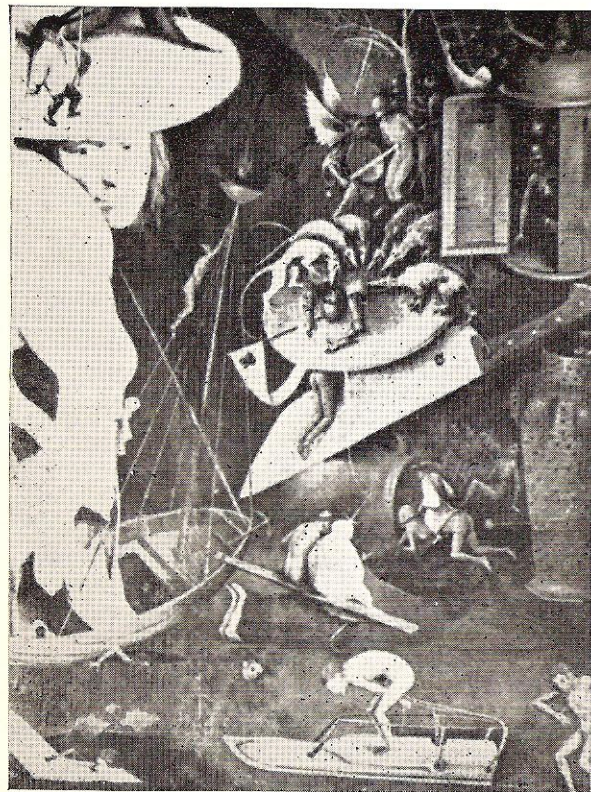

The curious thing is that the average man when asked what his idea of hell is, for the first time, will give a very dramatized version of the things or places he thinks would be the worst place to be. However, ask them if their description is feasible and what happens. They burst out laughing saying, 'Of course. It cannot be that way'. Ask them to mock-up as many variations of a hell as they like. They will always agree that what they have said could not be real. The answer is they don't know. Someone, somewhere, sometime said there was a bad place to go if your body died and you had done wrong.

Now with an agreement like that going around what is one left to do but mock up his own idea of hell. 'If you do something wrong you will go to hell.' The person having previously decided that hell is not for him uses this parallel to decide if any further actions by him could harm him at a later date.

A Scientologist has available his awareness of eight dynamics to help him resolve the problem of which course of action to take. The poor old religious fanatic has only two, Heaven or Hell. By the mere fact that religions of old give followers only two choices, the problems stand only a fifty-fifty chance of being resolved the right way.

Now take a society with as many aberrated people as ours and give them lots of problems. What happens? Utter chaos and confusion. Put into that society of people a handful who know how to solve their problems better, who on a simple mathematical basis stand a better chance of solving them correctly and before long you have a heaven being created on your own doorstep.

In striving to be good, man has for aeons placed the alternative of Hell before his children. Hell. Damnation. Eternal Fire. As this is an unknown state or place, man creates an image of what it must be like. He reaches for the stars and fears the blackness of the pit. He has dreams of cool peace and feels behind him the fire and brimstone.

In man's history and legend, these two imaginary worlds have been created. The Bible unlocked a chamber of Heaven and Hell in weird strangled conceptions unto the chimes of churchbells and roaring organ.

People of good intent have used them in a misguided attempt to better man. People of evil intent have used them to degrade man. Torquemada himself, writhed in ecstasies of joy as he watched his Inquisitors wring the last pangs of pain from those who disagreed.

The theme of going up to heaven or going down to hell could only be conceived by people whose observation of their own universe was clouded with fear and superstition. Even today the myth persists. Parents still tell their children that heaven is in the sky and hell is 'down there'.

Why does this obvious lie persist?

Goodness is basic in man. He forgets this and tries to be good. He feels the pain he inflicts on others often inadvertently, far more than he feels his own physical pain. In an effort to spare his children the same pain, he tells them to be good. And here is the first lie. As with all lies, in order to perpetuate them, complexity gets piled upon perplexity. Hell as a deterrent becomes more and more unconfrontable.

No-one stopped to look. No-one said, 'It isn't working'. No-one stopped and said, 'What is the definition of evil. What are the definitions of right and wrong?'

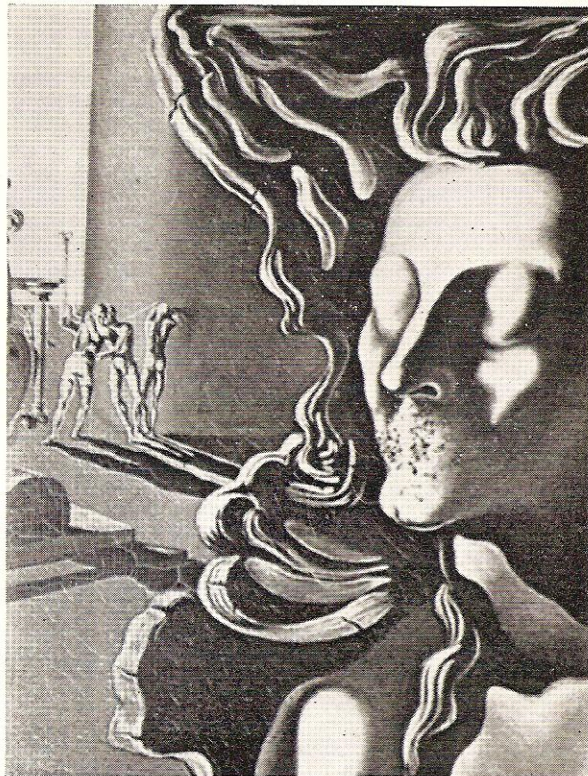

Prior to Scientology, these could not be defined for man because man himself was not understood. One cannot define the product of man until one defines the man and his relationship to his fellow man and the universe.

A Scientologist has eight points to judge his actions against. He knows that absolute right and wrong are not a truth in this universe. He can teach his children and have them observe the nature of man and the universe. And with the truth the being expands, learns judgment and chooses for himself the right action, that which benefits more than it harms.

Look at man's history on the subject of Heaven and Hell, God and Devil, Saint and Sinner. Look at the energy, the pain, the talent that have gone into perpetuating a lie for thousands of years.

The truth, the simple truth of man and his goodness was presented within the last two decades.

With the Eight Dynamics, L. Ron Hubbard gave to the world the answer to all those years of mystery.

T and Clear Successes

QUENTIN HUBBARD

QUENTIN'S SUCCESS

I put myself at cause over MEST things I was effect of. I felt more enthusiasm to start things going. Just the feeling of not getting flustered has greatly improved my outlook on the world.

Now that I am on the 'Enchanter', I've just been putting sails up and down, carrying them up and down, stuffing them away, pushing 'Enchanter' off the wharf, being on the helm six hours a day, and actually keeping her on course! It's all made me feel like a walking power house.

WILLIAM BURROUGHS: CLEAR 1163

Internationally famous American writer, WILLIAM BURROUGHS, author of The Naked Lunch and many other controversial novels, articles and short stories, is now Clear 1163. He attested Clear at the Advanced Org in Edinburgh, Scotland, on June 15, 1968. He says about being Clear, 'It feels marvellous! Things you've had all your life, things you think nothing can be done about—suddenly they're not there any more!'

Burroughs was amongst the first students to take the Clearing Course at the Advanced Org in Edinburgh. The new Org had just begun operations when he arrived there on May 30.

He was previously in Edinburgh in August, 1962, when he spoke at the renowned Writer's Conference of that year which was attended by many famous authors including Henry Miller, Lawrence Durrell and Mary McCarthy.

He comments that the Advanced Org itself is a very safe environment, but that the whole city, which he calls one of the most attractive in the world, is very safe and remarkably quiet and calm.

Burroughs, born in St. Louis, Missouri, and much-travelled since then, first heard of Scientology and read 'Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health' by L. Ron Hubbard, in Tangiers, Morocco, in 1959. In September, 1967, he began Academy training at the London Org as preparation for magazine articles he was to write about Scientology. He gathered the material for his articles but then went on to complete the Hubbard Trained Scientology Course and auditing to Grade IV Release. Power Processing and the Solo Audit Course at Saint Hill followed, in January, 1968. Throughout his training and processing, Burroughs has made immense gains in his ability as a top professional writer, to start and finish major literary work. The day after his Power Processing, he wrote, effortlessly, a chapter he had been struggling with for the previous month. Just prior to commencing the Clearing Course at the Advanced Org, he wrote an excellent film script, his first, in a remarkably short time. Earlier, he had been most reluctant to start this writing project. He scorns the wide-spread notion that creative people need to be neurotic in order to produce good work. 'Whatever anyone does, he will do it better after processing.'

Now Clear, William has returned to London to complete important writing work, including a new book about the next thirty years on this planet. Scientology, a primary factor in the destiny of Mankind, features prominently in this new novel.

Now enrolled, at the Advanced Org, on O.T. Course Sections, William Burroughs is moving forward strongly on the road to Total Power.

MICHAEL GRAHAM OT VI

OT VI culminates for me the attainment of viewpoints that I always knew were possible. I can see a whole new life out before me, and indeed each time I completed a major step on the road to OT, there was a new view of life, but each time a far clearer and expounded viewpoint. Ron's perfect gradient in technology has made this possible—for all of us on the planet. Thank you Ron.

DAWN OF A NEW TODAY

Out of a civilization of the future and into the dawn of a new today, a small group of OTs from the SEA ORG sped their way across the border and into Scotland. They shared the one compartment, and while the rest of the train slept, these people sat easily wide awake.

The first thing the conductor noticed was their eyes. He could not at first specify what it was that intrigued him, but at last he did. Their eyes were so CLEAR, so wide open and unclouded. Then he noticed their bodies, hard muscles they had, but at the same time they were relaxed and comfortable. The old man blinked his own eyes and wondered about them a little until his own random thoughts distracted him into forgetfulness.

At the station a slim girl startled a porter by lifting easily a sea bag he had tried and then set aside for his trolley. His bewildered gaze followed her as she sauntered away down the platform with it.

Edinburgh had just become Host to the People of the Advanced Org. A van came sharply around the corner of the next street and pretended to be endangered by the group now crossing. At his noisy blast, the figures should have jumped and danced, but they simply continued calmly walking and the driver found himself, operated by some outside power, swing his wheel and continue harmlessly on.

This was the first group sent to set up the AOUK.

The AOUK is a unique organization peopled by OTs sent to give the training to others to make them OTs. Because it is a unit placed in Society (an aberrated area), the AO team must be self-clearing of aberrations picked up from its environment. Therefore, it processes its own Organization through the Org Board continuously administering its own Ethics and correction to maintain a higher and higher standard of technical and personal efficiency.

This particular system and its operation was very successful many many millions of years ago, and ensures a qualified product; and the product of this Org is changed conditions on a cyclically higher plane until OT is fully reached.

The members of the group are so perceptive that they are aware of entheia as physical universe mass, and so they pick up rather easily those about them with strong counter-intentions, which measure on the meter the same way that a problem does. Less perceptive persons, have so much reactive mind counter intention themselves, that they cannot easily pick up counter intention in the environment; thus they are more subject to invalidation and evaluation. The higher the level of OT, the greater the perception and the more at cause of life one is. And the staff at the AOUK are very much OT.

An OT by himself can do very little to control the environment and life, but a group of OTs can achieve miracles. The stable datum is, however, that Ethics keeps OTs OT.

At the Advanced Org, one becomes an OPERATING THETAN. When the bank is first erased, the being is wholly able, but uneducated. Ron has said he's like a baby and must learn to use his power.

In a lecture, Ron said the new OT will take an object up with beams, not really needing his hand, but is so used to using his hand that he also closes his hand on the object. Then to put it down, he let's go his fingers but forgets to let go his beam, and for a moment is astonished that the object appears to stick to his hand. It is practice which gives proficiency.

The speed of particle flow alone determines POWER. Now it can easily be seen that a being with counterpostulates does not have very much power. An OT invalidating his abilities is, in fact, reducing the speed of particle flow and thus his POWER.

The Advanced Org is set up to keep Ethics (anything which reduces the speed of particle flow) in, so that the Being achieves maximum POWER. The personnel at the Advanced Org are skilled beyond the comprehension of the ordinary homo sapiens in the detection of stops and slows to flow.

It must not be considered that because these people have bodies like other humans that they remotely resemble them spiritually. An Advanced Org personnel is not only extremely perceptive, but also he lives in a new world of exciting experience as a Being. He recognizes Beings apart from their bodies, sees other peoples banks, and communicates directly with other Beings without a body.

He can exteriorize, and is in fact mostly exterior. Until he practices these skills, however, he very often does not realize that these are everyday skills now and does not explore them.

This is where it is very handy to have an Advanced Organization to handle the Ethics of the situation.

The AOUK staff wear a uniform reminiscent of the Space Opera society, which is really very fitting, because the Advanced Courses at the Advanced Org are far in advance of our present day society. The uniform shows symbolically how advanced Scientology Civilization is.

JOHN MCMMASTER REPORTS

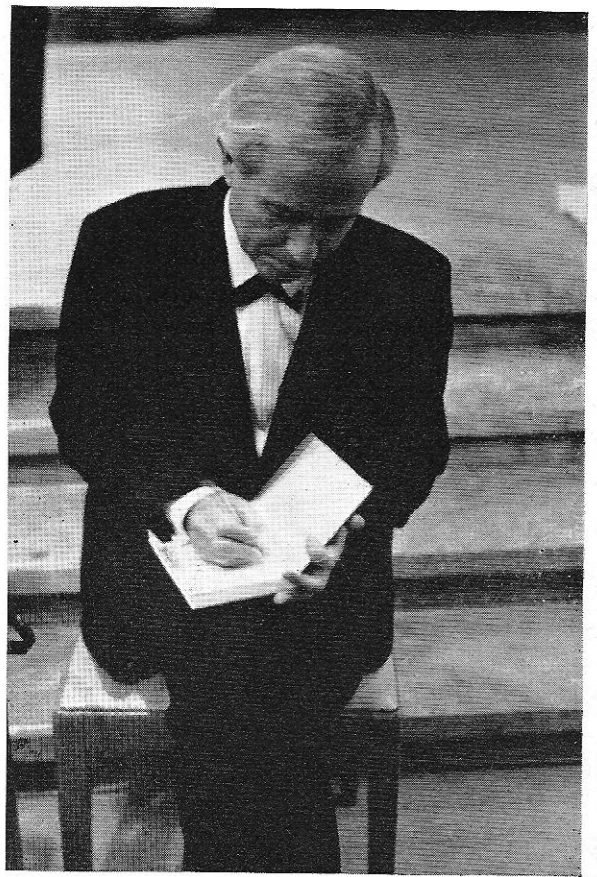

The World Tour

Before we left, Ron said to me, 'What OT level have you reached?' When I told him he said, 'Fine. You'll keep all the planes flying'.

We had three near goes. A hurricane over the Pyrenees, a jet trapped in the snow at London Airport on the runway we were coming in on, and an engine catching fire in our Boeing 707 from Zurich to Tel Aviv. The engine was turned off and we had to fly all the way back to London. Within an hour we were in another Boeing 707 heading for Tel Aviv. From there on we had no trouble with planes at all.

In all, the Organizations and Franchises we visited were Saint Hill, London, Perth, Adelaide, Sydney, Auckland, Hawaii, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Austin (Texas), Houston, New Orleans, Miami, Washington DC., Detroit, Toronto, New York, Johannesburg, Cape Town, Port Elizabeth, East London, Durban and Bloemfontein.

I should like to thank all the people at these Orgs and Centres for all the help they gave and for their tremendous willingness to have the lectures and events go right. It is wonderful to know that there are so many people across this planet who know the message of Scientology and are working to lift the horizons of their Brethren out of the quicksand to the mountain tops and beyond. As I look at it now—with an ever-increasing span of time that is my present time, it is like listening to a song of love that has never been heard before, and yet all seem to know, and listen a moment on the wind when they hear it and then spontaneously, 'Of course', and come flowing in on the melody.

For my mission was a very beautiful mission; it was 'to give Ron's love to the world'. And to the extent that I could flow the magnitude of such a love, I did, and each time I did, the spontaneous reception of that love added to the power with which I could deliver it. And so I grew and grew as a being and observed many become aware of aspects of love as yet undreamed of by man.

From city to city, country to country, continent to continent, we flew, seeing many shades of spring in the north and shades of autumn and winter in the south, taking with us always the added Power of the love from the place we had just left. And so the love flow sourced by Ron connected and expanded to the great power that it is, derived exactly from Truth.

Even where we struck Suppressive elements in the Organizations themselves, the people flocked in and the Mission went right. Sometimes I marvelled at the effortless strength of our spiritual backbones and then I knew with all the backing we had of all the Scientology oriented people across the planet and Ron, we could never fail.

It was a great privilege to have been on this pioneering journey of love and being able through the Ethics, Technology and Administration of Scientology to illustrate that love is being effective and winning in life, not succumbing, that if you value others' love, you will win and be happy and effective; to show them that their love is worth having and to encourage them to flow more and more.

To tell all that I observed would fill a large book and that will be done in due course. In this article I should like to tell you just some of the things that happened that give a very clear indication of the tremendous reach there is from a planet of people that is sick of being sick, for the Truth and Freedom that Ron through Scientology has to offer.

In Adelaide there was so much willingness to help that all went righter than right and we ended with a visit to Donald Dunstan, the Premier of South Australia and he assured me that he would not let anyone bulldoze him into legislating against Scientology, not even his Minister of Health.

In Auckland, New Zealand, the Maoris who have been long awaiting the arrival of the one who would bring the message of spiritual Freedom, accepted the message of Scientology and decided to perform the 'Ceremony of the White Heron', announcing and accepting me as the White Heron. This was a very moving and sincere ceremony which I have honoured by inviting all the Maoris on to Scientology lines and said I would further honour by writing a book called The Flight of the White Heron which I would dedicate to L. Ron Hubbard and the Maoris who gave such sincere acknowledgement to a product of his Technology.

In Hawaii one afternoon, I was on a lonely beach. I saw seven coconuts washed up by the sea.

I took them and planted them in the scrub on the edge of the sand so that I would have endowed anchor points to come back to. I was then looking into future track to observe what unnecessary confusion lay there that I could erase. Suddenly in that future track I saw a jet crashing just after take-off. As I was about to get the whole incident, two people walked up to talk to me and I lost it. Later, I was concerned about it, but felt it had erased. However, a week later in Los Angeles I heard about the plane that Alison and Bill were on, crashing after take-off in London, when bound for Australia. This is what I had seen. An interesting note is that the engine that exploded was put on in Hawaii just a short while before.

In Los Angeles I was on a few radio and TV shows. The highlight of these was the Les Crane Show in Hollywood which is a nation-wide show. This was an effortless success and when I reached London on the return I was introduced to a Roman Catholic Priest who had seen the show in California, went to Saint Hill, was audited to Power Plus and then went on to train in London to Level I.

Also when I returned to the Royal Scotman, I found on board a man who had never heard of Scientology before, but packed his bags and came straight to the Sea Org without any training or processing and is doing very well.

In San Francisco I was asked to give a 3rd Public Lecture and by this time I knew that I had about 1,000 friends in the audience and so I talked at length about suppression and subversive activity in relation to Vietnam and then asked the audience for their agreement to remove the suppression from the kernel of their country; Vietnam being only a symptom of it. I received instant agreement from them.

After the lecture, some people asked me what I intended doing about President Johnson and I said, 'Wait and see'. And then some said, 'Who would you like as President?' I said, 'Nelson Rockefeller'. 'But', said they, 'He will not stand'. To this I answered, 'Let's do first things first'.

A POEM WRITTEN BY LT. DIANA HUBBARD
UPON COMPLETION OF O.T. III

The sun set over the low wallowing hills
And the mist did gather in its swirling silverness
T'was the breathless still and the Autumn twilight
That turned the day to night

Endless plains lay themselves before me
The green grass was mellow and sweet
The purple distance beckoning my feet

Oh, that pain were not so sharp
Oh, that memories did not haunt
The journey is long and my heart is heavy
Far into the darkness alone I tread

And where is the land of Milk and Honey?

Pure golden light Invades the silver night
The shimmering dawn breaks over the sky
Its crimson heralds scattering
I see far straight this one time

Milk and Honey is both grotesque and offending
Sweet Angels detestably without purpose
There is no one but I to take the load

With the dawn comes grief
And the tears bring relief

I resume my journey a much more honest being.

Diana Hubbard

A few weeks later, driving into Austin, Texas, I saw large placards reading 'Bring Lyndon home'. We had the agreement of Texas and so I thought, 'This is the time to handle Johnson'. It was late Saturday afternoon. I lectured in Austin that night and the next day, Sunday, Johnson said to the nation that he would not seek re-election.

Shortly after that, Nelson Rockefeller said he would stand.

Five weeks later, just a few hours after reaching New York, Nelson Rockefeller's secretary phoned to have a private interview with me at my convenience. This was granted and was successful but needed following up.

I emphasised the point that other than Scientology, there is no mental therapy. The rest, such as psychiatry are all, except psycho-analysis, physical therapy, for only the body is handled in a great mysterious guise of knowing all about it, with electric shocks and scalpels. I also emphasised that no government would ever be better than trial and error or hit and miss until such time as it knew the commodity it governed, i.e. man; that government was there to legislate to make man happy, not sad, to acknowledge that economics, etc., were less than man, not more than man.

In South Africa many very good things happened and there was much enlightenment at Government level as to what Scientology is all about.

I ask all the Organizations, Centres and Scientology people across this planet, to look, everytime they feel the pressure of suppression, at the tremendous support they have across this planet from every other Scientology oriented person. Then you'll 'pick up your bed and walk', you'll find 'music in the sound of the hills' you'll find Truth is indestructable and you'll move on fast, and with the increased velocity of your movement to freedom you'll find all those who were sitting behind you waiting to move and could not move because you did not.

I thank Ron for the vast changes I have seen across this planet in the last two years, and I thank Robin and Colin and all the rest of you who came with me in giving Ron's love to the world.

I'll see you all moving on and up, coming through the Advanced Organization and the Sea Org, and bringing with you the millions who stand behind you, waiting for you to move.

So, see you soon.

Love,

JOHN MCMASTER.

HOW THE GALACTIC TRADING AND ETHNIC ADVANCEMENT UNIT WILL HELP YOUR PLANET

It is just a few spans of time since our first visit to your planet when we brought to you the richest of education, culture and science in order for your planet to take its proper place in this sector of the galaxy and now we are pleased to tell you that we have decided that you have progressed far enough to be eligible for a quarter system of doll bodies. You have, of course, seen doll bodies running our ships, maintaining patrols and our supply depots on your planet, and we know you have been curious. We of course do not wish to hide anything from you, but did not wish to introduce too startlingly different methods into your society until you were fully ready for them and could utilize them to the best advantage.

Now that the Galactic Population Control Program has been fully accepted by your peoples as the only and obvious way to galactic survival, your planet has the necessary resources and technology to introduce doll bodies.

You should not think that doll bodies are solely used as almost indestructible, maintenance free robots to do work. There are many models, from those designed to operate in free space, to maintain and service computer banks, to mine for ores, as efficient teachers for children, personal servants, technicians, soldiers and specialized military roles, to individually styled custom models with remote cortex control unit, full range perceptors and emotions and infinitely graduated sense controls, of nearly indestructible synthetone that is indistinguishable from meat body matter. These latter models are not yet available, as they require a high degree of expertise and technology, but will be available in the future.

Already, the first shipment of two million Administrator models are on the way. These, of course, will be activated by the re-educated and reformed administrators of your planet who retarded your progress for so long. You do not have to worry in the slightest that they may revert to their former ways once they are freed into administrator doll bodies. We have ensured that they will behave as perfect Galactic Administrators, totally dedicated now to the continued progress of your planet.

Further shipments of teachers, technicians, laborers and programmers are on their way also, from Denib Minor. You know of course how keenly interested we are in supporting artistic expression in the galaxy and will be pleased to hear that in a early shipment is a special artist model with Super X Perceptors, so that once again, art will blossom and adorn your delightful planet. But the return of art to your planet will not mean the return of the former licentiousness, laziness, aberrated and often insane and inciting ways of artists, for even these renegades have been reformed mentally and spiritually.

So you see how even the criminal and insane elements of a society can be utilized in a highly useful manner and help the planet in its forward progress. Such is the genius of the Galactic Population Control Program. Nothing is wasted.

And so, good people of planet Earth, you see how true our first words were to you: 'We come in Peace. We are here to help you'.

Footnote

Civilizations come and go, empires rise and spark awhile, soon to be extinguished by their leader's ineptitude and aberration. What has happened in the past on this planet is incredible enough but what will happen in the future has fortunately been secured with Scientology. Total Freedom and Total Power we can obtain. The incredible tragedies of the past will not now be repeated. Beings will no longer be slaved for untold aeons, contained by evil suppressives. At Clear we have Total Freedom and at OT there is Total Power. Erase the cruel chains of an aberrated past. Be free with us at the Advanced Organization.
